

Department of Botany was conducted short time certificate course to promote the ability and readiness for the students. Value added products from fruits available around our village was taught and demonstrated by renowned microbiologist for three days. The course plan contain theory and practical sessions along with slip text. Preparation of marmalade, Jelly, Jam and pickles were demonstrated with fruits available. This course was given enough courage to become a successful entrepreneur.