

St. Justin's College of Education

Aids day

Aids day was held on 30.11.2019 to create awareness towards the pandemic AIDS and the prevention among the student teachers. They have to report to the school students about this pandemic, safe guarding and treating the positive persons in humanly manner.