

INTER-COLLEGIATE EXTEMPORE ELOCUTION COMPETITION

The Inter-collegiate Extempore Elocution Competition was conducted on 28.2.2020. Prof. Daniel David, Head (SFS), Department of English, MCC, Chennai, Dr. (Mrs.) Lilly Stuart, Former Vice-principal of St. Christopher's College of Education and Dr. (Mrs.) Regina Joel, Vice-principal & Asst. Prof. of English, St. Christopher's College of Education were the Judges.

Students from 11 colleges participated in the competition excluding the host college. Participants picked up a topic and they spoke either in Tamil or in English. The first place went to Sheikh Mohammad Altaf of Institute of Advanced study in Education, second place to Salomiya, St.Christopher's College of Education and third place was shared by Christina Abigail of Madras Christian College and Sr. Deena David of Stella Matituna College Of Education. The rolling shield went to St. Christopher's College of Education.

