

REPORT

The Department of Zoology, Government Arts College, Ariyalur, organized the International Conference on “Frontiers in Environmental Health and Mitigation” during 27th and 28th of February, 2020, at the Conference Hall. The conference was inaugurated at 9.30 a.m on 27.02.2020, by Mr.V.R. Srinivasan, B.E., I.P.S., (Superintendent of Police, Ariyalur District). Dr.J.Malarvizhi, Principal of the College delivered the presidential address and Mr. Gerrit Impens, Director, Organic Farming, Netherlands Felicitated the gathering. Totally 9 eminent scientists from various disciplines of environment, delivered their special invited talks on both the days. Around 200 participants (Students, Scholars, Faculties and N.G.O’s) from various Institutions across the country attended and presented their research papers. Total of 221 Abstracts received were published during inauguration as a Book of Abstracts. The valedictory function on 28.02.2020 at 4.00 p.m was presided over by the Principal of the College and addressed by Prof. K. Kathiresan, Annamalai University and C.R. Jayaprakash, P.S.G. College, Coimbatore. The Principal, Staff and Students of the college and the Department of Zoology organized the two days programme. Awards and momentous were presented to the best oral presentations. Certificates were issued to all the registered active participants.