

CULTURAL EXCHANGE PROGRAMME EBSB 2019 - 20

Culture is an integral part of our social lives. For an interesting week at IIITN variety intersected paths with daily life. Officially a cultural exchange yet at heart the definition of mutual respect and appreciation for one another's the way of living life took place as the students of IIITDM Kurnool came for a weeklong stay at IIITN. Following is an account of the blast the students had along with the exchange of regional specifics.

6 Jan 2020

After the arrival was an inauguration, kind of a hearty invite into the college and our hearts. The event commenced at 5 pm and was bestowed with the presence of our director Dr. O.G.Kakde sir, registrar Mr. Kailash Dhakle and Dr. Kirti Doeshtwar Ma'am. In the evening some fun activities were planned for the students to enjoy. A bonfire was arranged, accompanied by Antakshari.

whatever it was idk). There were performances by students of both the colleges and with such love and understanding the event turned out to be a great success and an enchanting way to have known more about cultures at two different patches of the same little loving part of the world.

7th Jan 2020

This was a local sightseeing day. The students were taken to Khindsi lake and went for some boating over there. Then the students were taken to Ram mandir which as stated by our guest from Kurnool was a completely unique experier for them. The next visit was to Ram Dham where they witnessed some mesmerizing skits performed by the locals. The next destination was the Dhapewada vithoba temple which is on the banks of Chandrabhaga river. The day ended with a peaceful visit to the dragon palace which is a Buddhist palace.

8th Jan 2020

The day started at Adasa Ganpati temple where worshipping was followed by eating the local cuisines like Zunka Bhakar a famous Maharashtrian dish. After lunch, they were taken to Deekshabhoomi, a sacred monument. Then they were taken to Nagpur's most famous and biggest market Buldi.

9th Jan 2020

On this day, first, a Marathi workshop was conducted by Ashwin Andey where they were enlightened with Maharashtrian culture. And then a slide show of all the significant places and events of Maharashtra was displayed. This event was followed by a Maharashtra Quiz conducted by our students. And then a fun event took place namely Mad Ad in which the students were given a product and then they were asked to create an advertisement and present it in front of everyone. In the evening another fun event named Dress to Impress was conducted in which the students from Kurnool were selected randomly and they were provided with lugda and dhoti and were asked to dress within 3 minutes and perform. Where most of the students did lavan

10th Jan 2020

A sports event- kho kho , was planned in the morning.in which all the students from Kurnool took part with zeal and enthusiasm. Then a culture event took place in which various dance form were shown like, lavni, southern, western etc. after that students of Kurnool performed some cultural activities. then the Valedictory ceremony took place which was esteemed by the presence of respected director Dr. O.G. Kakde, Mr. Kailash Dhakle and Also Dr Kirti Doshetwar Ma'am. In this ceremony, prize were distributed to all the winners of the events taken place in the following days.

The Cultural Exchange , under EBSB, turned out to be a great success and an enchanting way to have known more about cultures at two different patches of the same little loving part of the world.

