Report:

Come Alive, an extension program of Holy Cross College, Tiruchchirapalli organized a webinar on the topic 'Unlocking moral dilemmas in students' and it was presided over by Dr. (Sr.) Christina Bridget, Principal of Holy Cross College, Trichy. The webinar was organized by the professors in charge, Dr. L. Cresenta Shakila Motha, assistant professor of Rehabilitation Science and Ms. V. Jayarani, assistant professor of Chemistry, Holy cross college. The resource person for the webinar was Dr. Ravi Stephen, B.Sc, MBBS, LM (licentiate in midwifery) . The session began with an introduction by Dr.Cresenta Shakila Motha, assistant professor of Rehabilitation

Science, followed by a word of Prayer by Ms. Deva Dharshini, 1st B.A. History, and a formal Welcome Address by Ms. Amala, 1st .B.A. Literature , Holy Cross College.

The Webinar was later taken over by Dr. Ravi Stephen who addressed the participants on the importance of moral values in today's corrupt society. He spoke about the indispensable role of one's mental, spiritual and physical well-being and the fruit of making the right choice in a challenging situation. The times are changing along with the modern day trends. Dr. Ravi Stephen stated the mandatory - must practice habits one must inculcate at an early stage of life to avoid mental, spiritual and physical breakdown which are the results for the lack of indulgence of one's self in parallel with their culture, ethical practices and moral values. Abortion, use of social media, same gender marriage, pre-marital relationships, precautionary steps towards physical fitness were the topics on which Dr. Ravi Stephen emphasized on. The interesting session came to an end with an interactive question and answer session. Various question were raised by the student participants in an enthusiastic manner. The webinar was formally ended by a vote of thanks proposed by S. Helankkethini, 1 BRSc, Holy Cross College.
