Report

The 24th P N Panicker National Reading/ Digital Reading Month Celebrations were celebrated across all the States and Union Territories, from 19th June to 18th July 2019. Started as a Reading Day Celebration on 19th June, 1996, it has become a mass movement to promote the culture of reading. In this regard, under Ek Bharat Shrestha Bharat programme, BGCW a webinar on the Literary Perspectives of Puducherry and Daman: A Prelude was conducted. The webinar aimed to actively enhance interaction between people of Puducherry and Daman by introducing the literature and notable writers in the respective languages. Through this exchange, that the knowledge of the different languages lead to an enhanced understanding and bonding between paired states

Dr.S. Alamelu Mangai, the State Coordinator presided over the session with the keynote address. Dr.N.Chandra and Dr. M.Parimala, Assistant Professors, Dept. of English gave lectures on the Puducherry and Gujarati writers respectively. 100 students had registered for the webinar, 50 of them attended. Fellow Nodal Officers from Puducherry also attended the session.
