The EBSB Club of Kongu Engineering College is organized a online Interactive program on "Creating awareness on students' online Classes". Online education is the key and perhaps the path to upskilling. The program was more interactive and combined with features like surveys or polls, quiz etc. Somehow, the online program unlocked students' creativity.

online competency based learning allows the students to attain transferable skills and competencies the classes offer flexibility and the ability for students to drive the learning of a competency. Hence, E-learning platform is going to majorly impact education and herald the arrival of a new normal.
