5. Brief about event

An online training session on the language of Jammu & Kashmir with a detailed session on Kashmiri Language.

6. Report of the event

The programme was well attended by language enthusiasts across the nation. Mr. Shakir Fayaz was the resource person and delivered a detailed presentation on the languages of Kashmir. The presentation started with an introduction to the various languages spoken in J&K. The presentation then concentrated on the Kashmiri language. He elaborated on the script of the language, and the brief history and etymology of the language. For the benefit of the audience and for better dissemination of the knowledge of the language; Mr Shakir highlighted the daily used words in the state, such as numbers, days, food items, fruits, vegetables and some common phrases used in day to day life. It was a very interesting, informative and interactive session to learn a new language. The session was well enjoyed and participant feedback was very encouraging.
