Report on

Online Literary Quiz and National Webinar

Ensuring that education is not obstructed during the lockdown period and to make effective use of the time available during these times, the Department of English under the guidance of Dr.P.N.Sudha, the Principal,D.K.M. College for Women has conducted an online quiz on Literary Theory and Criticism. Ms.V.P.Gayathri, the Head, Department of English and Ms.M.Gayathri coordinated the online event. The Google form (https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLScEk53C2-WqjxC2HyHzASbefDZ90Qef9KVuk737ftly3edS0Q/viewform?usp=pp_url) for this online quiz was made available through WhatsApp messages and Emails. Professors and students from various sections were brought into this digital learning event. The online quiz was open to all sections of the learning community from 20.05.2020 to 23.05.2020. The quiz attracted 530 participants ranging from students, scholars and professors in English Literary studies. The participants who scored 60% and above received their appreciation certificate for their active participation in the quiz.

As part of its knowledge dissemination drive, the Department of English also conducted an Online National Webinar titled “English Language Learning from Home: Techno-Pedagogical Perspectives” on 20.06.2020. This event received a huge response as there were around 500 participants registered from all over India. Ms. V. P. Gayathri, Assistant Professor and Head, Department of English and her team were at the helm of this entire event. The resource person Dr. S. SENTHILNATHAN, Director, UGC-Human Resource Development Centre and Professor, Department of Educational Technology, Bharathidasan University, Tiruchirappalli addressed the participants on the topic “English Language Learning from Home: Techno-Pedagogical Perspectives”. 315 participants actively participated in the google meet forum from the beginning till the end. The Resource person highlighted the immediate need of the technical knowledge of online tools and the various online educational resources available to the students and teachers. The feedback from the participants were collected and the link of the recorded video was shared with the registered participants.
