

Holy Cross College (Autonomous) Tiruchirappalli-2
RESCAPES Program 2020-2021

Program on HOW TO PROTECT OURSELF THROUGH TRADITIONAL METHOD

Date: 10th September 2020

Venue: Kuruvampatty

Even though government providing lot of information about Covid-19, people in rural villages, inattention to follow the rules and preventive measures. To support the government our college extension department RESCAPES in association with CHAT Organization provide Kabasura Kudineer and mask to the village people. Mr.Francis from CHAT organization explained the people about how to protect ourself through traditional method. He explained the uses of herbs available in the farm at the village and how it improves the immunization of the individual.and also explained the importance of wearing Mask.

141 village people participated in the program and kabasura kudineer was given to 141 people and mask was given to 100 village people.

Mr.Francis,CHAT Organization interacting and explaining the importance of preventive measures to the villagers.- 10th September 2020

