EBSB REPORT

ABOUT THE EBSB EVENT

Alankrit- IIITG Fine Arts Club organized a very promising event 'Royalties', under EBSB events on 21st May 2022. The theme of this month's EBSB event was 'Qilas and Hawelis' of Rajasthan through paintings and sketches. This event was only opened to IIIT Guwahati students. There were 22 participants in the event. Each participant drew the portraits Forts and Hawelis of Rajasthan. The Objective of the event was to highlight the rich architecture of Rajasthan. The participants mostly drew the forts that they have visited in Rajasthan. The event was organized on Google meet since most of the students are on vacation.

The Rules for the Competition were

Participants were asked to represent any Qilas and Hawelis of Rajasthan of their choice through their artistic skills in the given time. They used pen, pencil, crayons, or oil colors of their choice. A stipulated time was allotted to the participants to draw their art and submit their entries in online mode. The Fine Arts Club Coordinators monitored the event. All the entries were submitted to the Fine Arts Coordinators- Pushpanjali Nema and Dhruv Verma. Dr. Babita Jajodia, Associate Faculty Coordinator- IIITG Cultural Board coordinated the event. Dr. Suranjana Barua, Associate Dean-Student Affairs, and the Office of Student Affairs helped in organising the event.

The event was judged by Dr. L. David Lal, Faculty Coordinator-IIITG Cultural Board. The entries were evaluated on the basis of concept/theme, design, and execution. Most of the participants were very promising in their artwork. They represented the forts and hawelis in their true essence. It was difficult to select the winners as the top seven were drawn very well. The event had only three winners. According to the criteria of evaluation, the winners are the following:

- Ms. Girija Hegde- First Prize Winner
- Ms. Kushi Garg- Second Prize Winner
- Mr. Ashutosh Pandey- Third Prize Winner

The event showcased a history of Rajasthan that is truly an integral part of the state. The students of IIITG mostly from non-Rajasthan states learned about the various aspects of Rajasthan history through this monthly EBSB event. These monthly EBSB events are a learning platform about the state of Rajasthan for the students of IIITG.
