Celebration of festivals of the paired state is an important activity under EBSB. As Assam is paired with Rajasthan, thus IIITG celebrated Makar Sankranti by organising various events such as Kite Flying, Rangoli Making, Singing songs on Makar Sankranti etc on 15 January 2023 from 10 AM onwards.

Students in large numbers participated in this event. Kite Flying on the IIITG campus was the main attraction besides Rangoli making. More than 100 students participated in the kite flying event for more than two hours. A few faculties also joined the students in flying the kites.

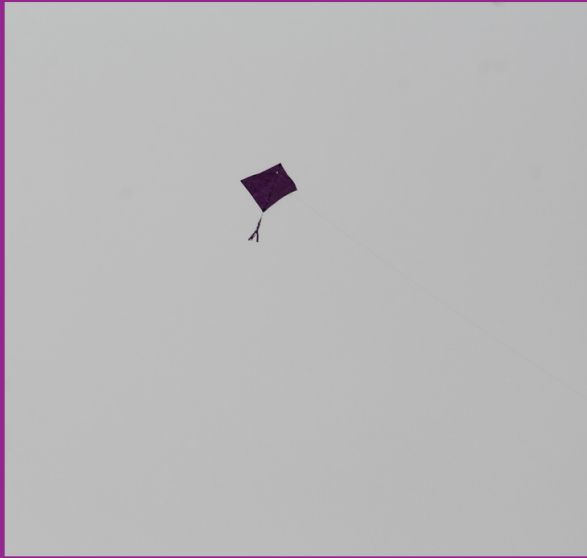

Rangoli making theme was 'Makar Sankranti'. The use of yellow and vibrant colours by the students created an amazing rangoli in front of the institute. The fine arts club under IIITG Cultural Board executed the rangoli. The Music Club conducted a 40 mins musical event. The students sang the folk songs of Rajasthan those sung during the Makar Sankranti. Other students from Rajasthan also sang along with the Musical team.
