Report:
As part of MHRD initiative "Ek Bharat Shrestha Bharat", Institute Cultural Council and Fourthwall - the dramatics club of IIT Bombay proudly organised a theatre showcase event.

The following plays were prepared with immense hardwork:
- Alazia
- Saanp
- Death Note
- The Final Draft
- Chitthi
- Monoact by Arpit Shashwat

EBSB promotes the idea of a sustained and structured cultural connect between denizens of different regions. Cultural diversity in India is a joy that ought to be celebrated through mutual interaction & reciprocity between people of different states and UTs so that a common spirit of understanding resonates throughout the country. Through Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat, two states were represented - Maharashtra and Goa. Maharashtra is the third largest state of India. It has a long history of Marathi saints. It spans multiple cultures. Each part of Maharashtra has its own cultural identity in the form of different dialects of Marathi language, folk songs, food, and ethnicity.
The most popular tourist state, Goa, is widely known for it's cultural richness too. Football and music are deeply entrenched in Goan culture. Goa is also known for its New Year's celebrations and the Goan Carnival is known to attract a large number of tourists. The plays were in alignment with the current cultural scenario of these two states.
