Report on Street Play – Female Foeticide

13th February, 2020

The theme of the Street play was 'Save girl child'. It was for creating the awareness and to spread the message amongst the minds of the young students about the girl child, which is one of the great issues needs to be addressed in the society in general and has to be paid a special attention toward this issue. The Street play was divided into three parts:

1. First part was on the status of women in society,
2. Second part was on awareness of blind faith and
3. Last part was on save girl child.

15 students from the commerce department of our college were acted / presented this street play on 11th Feb, 2020 in the college campus at 10:30 am. The Street play was viewed by the Students, Staff and faculty members of the college. On this occasion, Vice-Principals Prof. S. S. Patil, Prof. C. D. Bhosale and Dr. E.S. Mundhe were present. This street play was conducted by one of the faculty Dr. Harsha Goyal, who is a member of EBSB club of our college.
