

Nati : A Folk Dance in Himachal Pradesh

Presented by : EBSB CLUB OF

NSS TRAINING COLLEGE CHANGANACHERRY, Kerala

Ms Sreelakshmi V, Ms Sreelekshmi V, Ms Jwala KJ, 2nd year B. Ed Students at NSS Training College Changanacherry prepared an informative video on NATI : A Folk Dance in Himachal Pradesh, as a part of EBSB Club programs. They gathered information about Nati by searching internet and other vlogs also.

In Himachal Pradesh, the Nati folk dance of Kullu district has made a world record by entering the Guinness Book of World Records as the largest folk dance in the world on January 11, 2016.

Nati dance is a local folk dance of Kullu district of Himachal Pradesh and depicts ras lila or dances concerning Hindu God Krishna and Gopis and the entertaining plays of Chandravali. Dancers join their hands and make movement accordingly with the music and rhythm. However, there are thirteen styles. This dance was traditionally performed by men who wear decorated caps, sashes, churidaars and swirling tunics but now it has been performed by women mostly.
