

ATTIRES OF HIMACHAL

Clothing is considered as the primary need for human, which can be used as a barrier which helps to rescue them from the hard environmental conditions. The attire of Himachal people is very vibrant and beautiful which help them to withstand the harsh cold weather condition. The hand-woven dress of Himachal is a key attraction of the tourism and also supports its economic sector.

The dressing style is different to each districts of himachal .The various types of dresses are Chanba, Kinnaur, shimla, kulu, and Lahul. Among these the commony used dresses are Chola, Chubba, Sulthan, Luanchani, Dora and Topis. Most of them are made of woolen clothes which resist them from the extreme cold condition. The dress also contains various patterns and embroidery works which makes it a piece of artistic value.