| 8 th May 2024 | Rabindranath Tagore popularly known as “Kabiguru” has played a pivotal role in The Bengal Renaissance movement. He was the first Indian to receive the prestigious Nobel prize in 1913, for his work of Gitanjali. Apart from winning the Nobel he was a great social reformer, painter, freedom fighter, poet and avid traveller, present day he is seen as the flag bearer of the rich culture of Bengal. Gurudev’s thinking is always much forward of time for which he was awarded the title of Knighthood by the British government. To celebrate the 163rd birthday anniversary of this great personality, I.H.M Kolkata has organised a cultural evening on 08/05/2024, starting up with the introductory speech by Mrs. Sohini Mukhopadhyaya. The evening was filled up with many recitations which were focussed on the literature works of Tagore, solo song performances of Rabindra sangeet, instrumental shows with synthesizer and mouth organ playing the classic hymn of songs written by the great Nobel laureate, along with a group song to pay tribute and homage to Kabiguru . The faculty members along with the administrative staffs of I.H.M Kolkata took active participation in this event. Honourable Principal Mr. Raja Sadhukhan thanked all for gracing the occasion with their presence. |  |
