1.	Institute of Hotel Management Pusa	January, 2022	Celebrations of 73rd Republic Day, 2022 With Virtual screening of cultural activities by the Cultural Society of IHM PUSA Showcasing the music & dance of India with an emphasis on Sikkim.	On the auspicious occasion of the 73rd Republic Day, IHM PUSA, like every year, celebrated this day with nationalist fervour in keeping with the EBSB Scheme. This year, being the 75th year of Independence is also being celebrated as 'Azadi Ka Amrut Mahotsav' across the country. The event began sharp at 9 am with the welcoming of our respected Principal Sir, Sh. K.K.Pant, who hosted the national flag post which all sang the National Anthem and then the collective slogan of Bharat Mata ki Jai was roared by everyone present. After the flag hoisting, our respected Principal Sir addressed all present virtually as well as physically. After the address, the pre recorded cultural programme was played virtually for everyone. Everyone thoroughly enjoyed the performances and congratulated the cultural team for their splendid work. Laddus were distributed to all physically present following all COVID precautions. The institute also displayed the video in which our Students also showcased the Music and Dance of Sikkim to bring in the vibrance. The Institute looked splendid in the day and during the evenings; it was lit and decorated too. The students of IHM PUSA were excited even before the programme started for they would see themselves and their friends participating in the cultural programmes. Due to COVID 19 restrictions, the entire programme was broadcasted live to an audience comprising of college students of all courses and physically for the faculties and college staff. Residents from in campus quarters also joined in for the celebrations. Little toddlers and kids accompanied by their parents lifted the spirits of everyone present.	No	35 physically present and 170 attended virtually through WebEx.
