6. Report of the event

An online poster competition was organized by the EBSB Club at the University of Madras, for the students. The competition was open to all students across India. The event was announced on 15 October 2020 during the 'Youth Awakening Day Celebrations'. It was held over two months. There were nearly 100 posters received from students across the country. Out of all the posters received only 50 were selected initially for scrutiny based on the criteria set by the organisers. The 50 posters were scrutinized and 10 of them were selected and called for an online representation of their posters. The Competition was adjudged by the Dean Student Affairs – Dr. Sheik Mohammed Hussain, Professor and Head of the Department of Geology, University of Madras and The Co-ordinator RUSA 2.0 – Prof. A Stephen, Department of Nuclear Physics, University of Madras. The Posters were very vibrant and depicted the diverse food culture of our beautiful country. This event was not just about the competition but it encouraged knowledge sharing about the various styles of cooking and food culture in our diverse country. The prize winners were chosen on their work as well as their ability to explain their understanding of the variety of food in India. The list of prize winners are as follows:

First Place - Ms. Nadha Abdul Rahim

Second Place - Ms. Jayasree Kancharapu

Third Place - Ms. Sowmiyarithika S P

All the participants were awarded with a participation certificate.
