6. Report of the event

This online event was organized through the CISCO WebEx platform on 16th December 2020.

Dr. Beena Budhki, a renowned author and the secretary of the Hindi Kashmiri Sangam, presided and delivered an interesting and informative lecture on the women in Kashmiri Literature. The session was well attended by students, scholars and faculty who were keen and eager to listen to about the authors who made a considerable contribution to the Kashmiri literature. She highlighted the contributions made by Lal Dedh, Habba Khatoon, Arnimal and Rupa Bhavani. Their works were considered phenomenal and immensely contributed to the Kashmiri culture.

The session was very thought provoking and provided an insight into the world of Kashmiri literature as well as the role played by women authors. The participants were very glad to be a part of this event and the feedback collected indicated a need towards organizing more programmes of such nature.
