DOCUMENTATION ON EK BHARAT SHRESHTHA
BHARAT FOR THE MONTH OF JUNE - 2021

Introduction :

On the occasion of the 140th Birth Anniversary of Sardar Vallabhbhai patel on 31st October 2015, the prime Minister of India, Narendra Modi, announced “EK Bharat Shreshtha Bharat Scheme”. India is a unique nation, whose fabric has been woven by diverse linguistic, cultural and religious threads, held together into a composite national identity by a rich history of cultural evolution, coupled with a rousing freedom struggle that was built around the tenets of non-violence and justice.

Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat -

A tribute to Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel .

Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel was the first Deputy Prime Minister of India who also served as the home Minister of the Union of India post independence. He played a vital role in convincing the 565 princely states to concede to the union of India. This exceptional feat earned Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel the sobriquet.

“The iron Man of India”.

The India of today - People from different cultural and religious origins, united under the flag and one nation; is due to the vision and labor of Sardar Patel. Therefore, on his birthday the prime Minister announced “EK Bharat Shreshtha Bharat” to pay tribute to the Iron man of India.

Objectives of EK Bharat Shreshtha Bharat

The main objective of the scheme is to promote national integration among the people of different states and union Territories, by holding mutual cultural exchange programs from time to time.

Amritsar

The moment you hear Amritsar mentioned, your mind is sure to recall the famous attraction in the land, the Golden Temple. This ancient land is home to various shrines and places of historical importance. Here are the top destinations in Amritsar.

- * Golden Temple
- * Jallian Walla Bagh
- * Akal Takht
- * Taza Dewan Sahib

Khanda Sahib

The Khanda Sahib shrine is one of the most important shrines in Amritsar. It is a beautiful structure with a golden dome and a white facade. The shrine is surrounded by a large garden and a pond. It is a popular destination for pilgrims and tourists alike.

Ludhiana

When you drive away from Ludhiana, you reach Durgam which is one of the major cities in Punjab. It's religious importance in the Sikh community can't be challenged and also that you can visit some of the oldest monuments and buildings still standing till here since time immemorial. But that's not all, the special Durgam Fair in Durgam attracts people to visit famous and lets you check some really exciting and shopping places in Punjab that sells excellent goods that glorify the handicrafts of the state at discounted rates.

Patiala

A pretty vibrant and green city of Punjab that you a glimpse of the confluence of urbanization and cultural influence in the lives of the people here. The Patiala Fort which here is a grand and famous to visit during the winter festival in Punjab. Apart from it, just to add some more to your tour, head towards the also mukhah complex, Sherah mahal and Mohi Bagh palace, all of which are historically and culturally important locations.

Ludhiana

You can call it the largest manufacturing city of Punjab which is also the largest one on its map. But this city proudly portrays the culture of Punjab beautifully as it still has those old buildings of yesterday and some famous Gurdwaras that soak the town on a dusty basis. And when you intend to spend the festivals here, do visit the famous Lohi Fort, the Maharaja Ranjit Singh War Museum, and Rakhi Bugh Park here.

Jalandhar

Commonly referred to as the grain capital of India, Jalandhar is the best blend of modernization and simple JLR style. You'll love to travel across a clean and wide streets and discover some really astounding tourists attractions here like Rangla Punjab, Haveli and Jang E Azadi Memorial. And the Devi Talab Mandis and Soda Mandis should be visited during the pwali Festival to enjoy the true essence of Festival.

Bathinda

The oldest city lying on the top of Punjab takes you behind the modern era to the yester years when you drive through the roads and when you visit here, you shall discover that there are lots of things to do in Punjab in the festival time. From the Dholi Bazaar to the Aile Mubarak and Rose garden, even part of this city glows gloriously decked up during the festive seasons and the positive vibes are certain infectious. And if these aren't enough you can further indulge in festive spirit by visiting Pathankot, a beautiful city.

Anandpur Sahib

Closest to the Pakistan border, the Anandpur Sahib is a very essential place for the Sikhs. You'll find lots of Gurdwaras and Parks here to enhance the value of the city. The chosen of these Gurdwaras during the times of Festival of Punjab is certainly something to be impressed with. Don't forget to drive towards the Vaisak - E - Khalsa and Jhajjar Bachaut wild life sanctuary when you are here.

Conclusion:

EK Bharat Shreshtra Bharat is an ambitious Scheme that seeks to further strengthen the existing unity among diverse cultural & religious groups of India.

In addition, it launched an initiative to boost the cultural connection between the states and union territories of the country. Furthermore, it helps people to enhance their interaction with the people of a different region of the country.
