International Mother Language Day (21.02.2022)

International Mother Language Day was celebrated on 21.02.2022 as part of the School Morning Assembly Activity beginning with the School Choir rendering a song glorifying the importance of Mother Tongue. Speech by Kum.Aryasree of Class:IX on “The Importance of Mother Tongue and the history behind the celebration of this day “ set the tempo of the program. It was soon followed by Poem Recitation and Quiz. The Principal Smt. Prameela in her address stated that “ language is not just a means of communication but it also represents our vast cultural heritage- the key to our creative thinking and expression.”

Essay Writing, Versification, Poster Making and Speech Competitions were organised both Class wise and House wise . The events were organised to promote linguistic and cultural diversity and multilingualism around the world
