Start Date : 17.02.2023

End Date : 17.02.2023

Description : Mural paintings are artworks that are painted on the walls of caves and palaces in India. Kerala mural paintings are the frescos depicting Hindu mythology in Kerala mostly dating back between 9th to 12th centuries.Traditionally the painting involves sketching of the outline , application of colours and addition of decorative details

Traditional murals used panchavarana (Sanskrit: five colours) exclusively i.e. red, yellow, green, black and white. The characters in the murals are coloured according to their characteristics as illustrated in the relevant Hindu mythological scriptures. Spiritual, divine and dharmic characters (satwika) are depicted in shades of green. Those influenced towards power & materialistic wealth (rajasic) are painted in shades of red to golden yellow. Evil, wicked and mean characters (tamasic) are generally painted in white or black.

Interhouse Mural Painting was organized on 17th February wherein 2 students from each House participated.

Description : Rajasthan has always been a colourful state, and Bani Thani was a widely loved singer and poet in Kishangarh. A group of Rajasthani paintings were dedicated to her and Raja Samant Singh, who abdicated his throne to retire to a comfortable life. This school of paintings would replace Radha and Krishna with the King and Bani Thani .These have always reflected in the various styles of paintings that have originated from the state

Mandana paintings are wall and floor paintings of Rajasthan and Madhya Pradesh, India. Mandana are drawn to protect home and hearth, welcome gods into the house and as a mark of celebrations on festive occasions.

The Migration students of JNV Jhalawar, Rajasthan painted the school compound wall depicting Bani Thani and Mandana art .

Description : The International Mathribhasha Diwas was observed on 21st February celebrating our multilingual heritage. Mast.Rayan pointed out that the theme for this year reflected the spirit of“Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat” . He also pointed out the necessity of protecting our language, culture and identity .Mast.Narayanan delivered his speech citing how the modern society is slightly sliding away from the use of mother language and is embracing foreign cultures. He pointed out that these was because of the lack of proper knowledge among the new generation. He stressed on the need for the enlightenment of the students of this generation on our vibrant culture. Mast.Aswin hosted a quiz on “Mathrubhasha Diwas” that focused on the linguistic diversity of our nation and various movements throughout the world. Kum.Esha and Kum.Sreenanda of Class VI emphasized on how essential, the role of mother language was in the development of someone’s personality and how the mother language plays an important role right from the beginning by reciting a poem.
The activities glorifying the mother tongue were conducted as part of the celebration during the Morning Assembly
