Executive Summary

The "Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav" (AKAM) initiative of the Indian government commemorates and celebrates 75 years of progressive independence in India. AKAM has provided a forum for India to recognize its magnificent history, culture, and achievements.

It covers everything progressive about India's socio-cultural, political and economic identity. During the months of February and March 2022, the Ek Bharat Shreshtha Program has been chosen as an iconic activity.

In a similar manner the Central University of Haryana has teamed with the University of Hyderabad to jointly organize several events highlighting Haryana and Telangana's culture and tradition. The Haryana's virtual tour was fifth event held as part of Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav-- Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat.

The program commenced with introduction of Haryana by Ms. Vandana, documentary was presented by Mr. Akshat Pushpam, valedictory remark was given by Dr. Ramesh Kumar followed by vote of thanks by Mr. Parth. Today's program was coordinated by Mr. Akshat Pushpam.

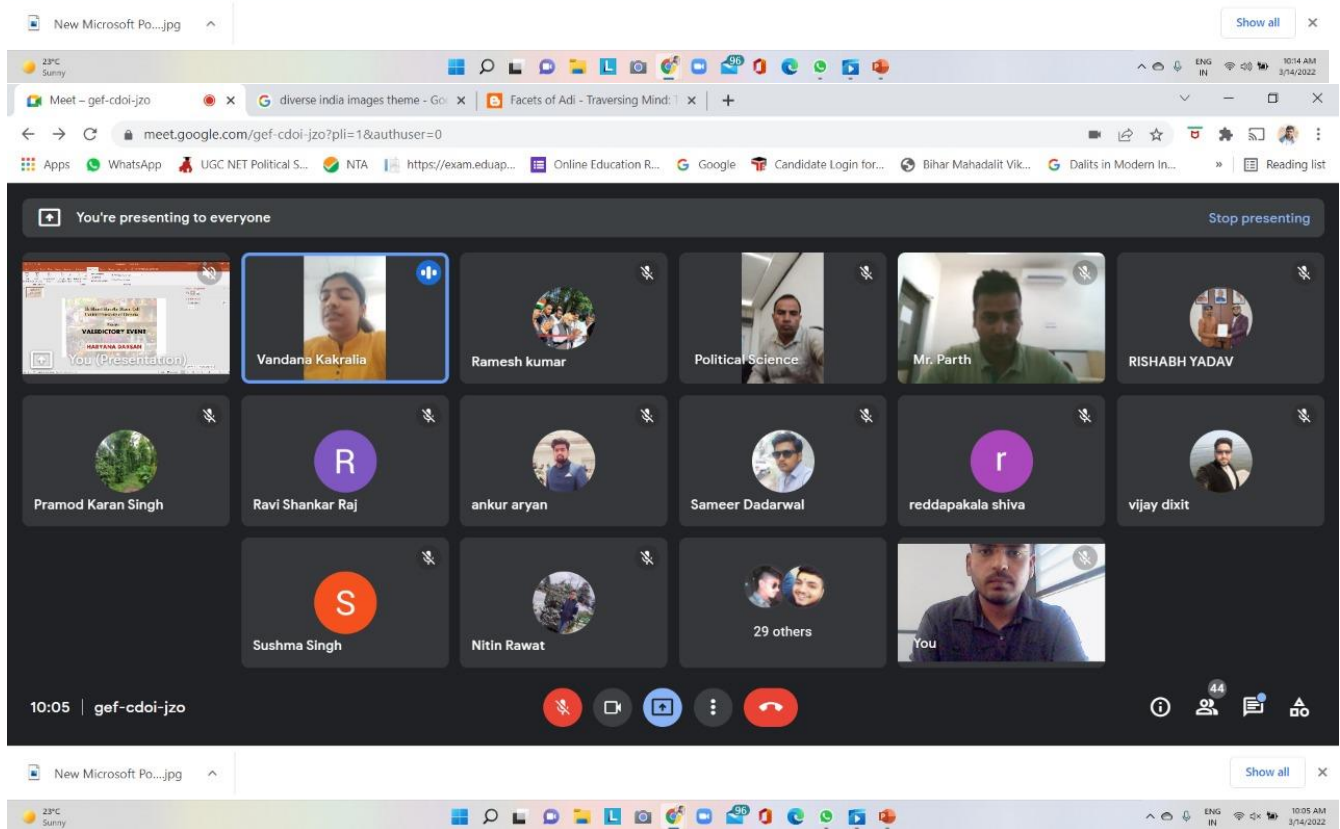

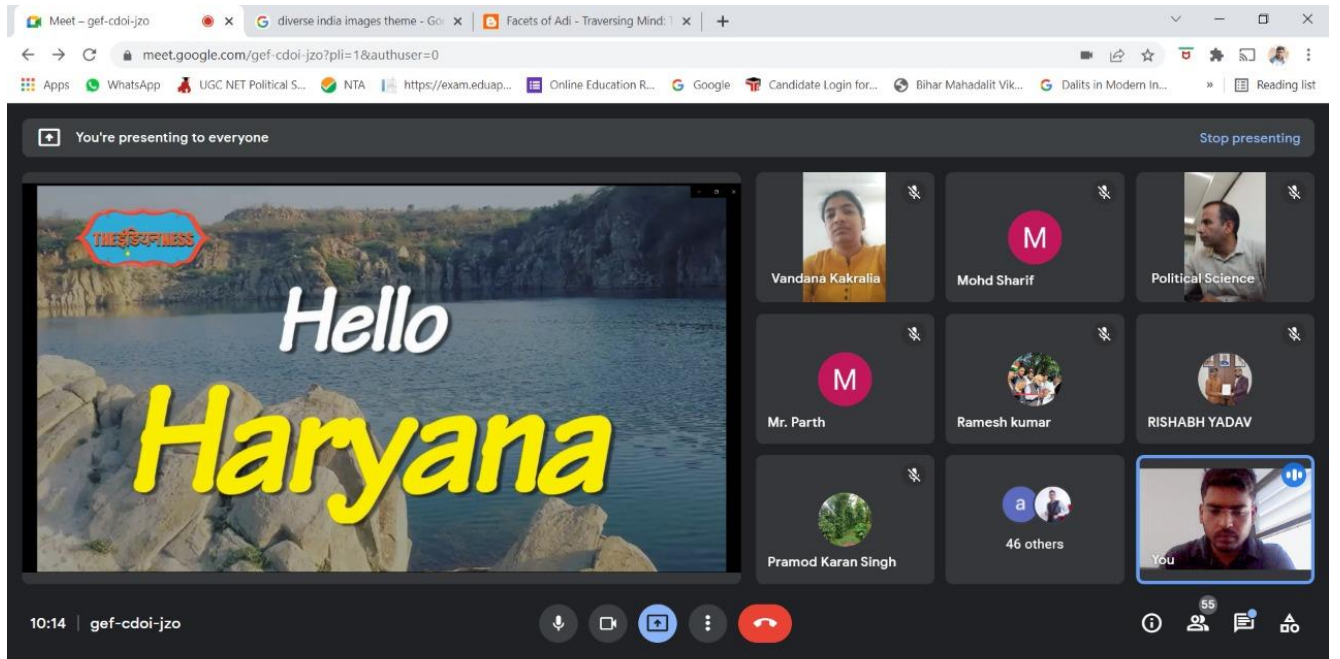

The introduction of Haryana made by Ms. Vandana was pretty informative and the documentary presented by Mr. Akshat Pushpam made people aware about various cultural and social aspects of Haryana state these including description of temples, discussion on history of Haryana, palaces, parks, architecture, and also folk culture including traditional folk dance, songs, traditions and customs were highlighted. The Haryanvi cuisines, art and culture, fairs also found an important place in the documentary.

It was with the support of such wonderful team that this program of Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav-Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat proved successful, the participant's knowledge about Haryana's culture enriched by being a part of this wonderful program.

The virtual tour of Haryana commenced with high applauses from the participants making it a wonderful program with active participation of 62 faculty and students.
