REPORT OF THE FOLK SONG COMPETITION

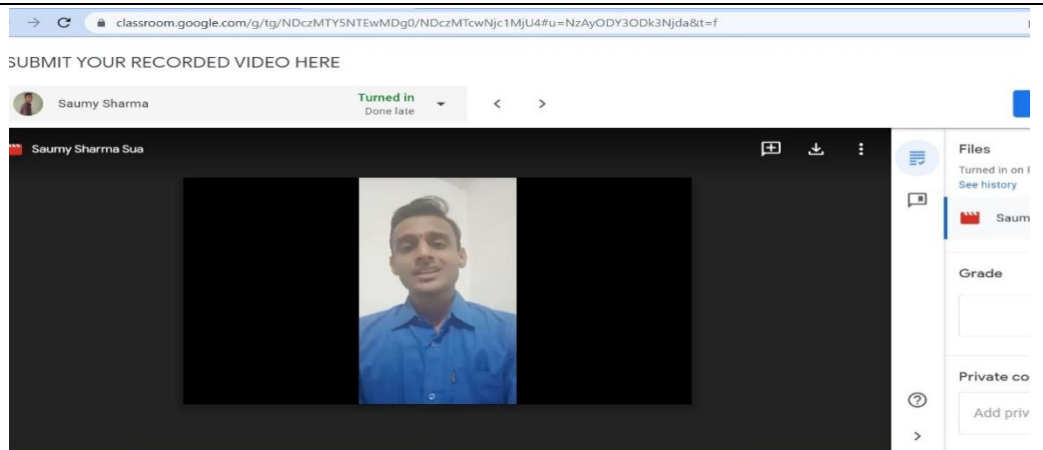

Under the patronship and with blessings of Honorable Vice-Chancellor, Guru Ghasidas Vishwavidyalaya, Prof. Alok Kumar Chakrawal Ji, a folk song competition was organised by Guru Ghasidas Vishwavidyalaya (GGV) under Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat Scheme on 24th February, 2022.

The students from GGV, Saurashtra University and Central University of Gujrat participated in this programme. The nominated students presented their folk songs in Chhattisgarhi or Gujrati language, in plain voice, in Maximum 3 minutes and also presented an introduction of maximum 1 minute about the song (theme, time, people or occasion associated, specialities, etc.). No instruments, background music, or karaoke, etc. was allowed to use with the song. The students presented their entry by submitting a video record through given google classroom link. The panel of judges included Dr. Manish Goyani (Shree Dhanvantary Pharmacy College, Kim-Surat, Gujrat), Dr. Manoj Joshi (Saurashtra University) and Dr. Mukesh Chandrakar (GGV). The folk songs were judged based on criteria of the theme or meaning of the lyrics, vocal quality, sense of rhythm, Signature style, uniqueness, diction and presentation, and an understanding about the song. The students participated pretty enthusiastically and came up with a variety of Chhattisgarhi and Gujrati folk songs.

Best three performances were from 1) Saumy Sharma, Department of Chemistry, GGV, Bilaspur (Winner), 2) Megha Pathak, Department of Mechanical Engineering, GGV, Bilaspur (First runner up) and 3) VasaniHiral Arvindbhai, Smt. K.S.N Kansagara Mahila College, Saurashtra University, Rajkot (Second runner up). The winners shall be credited with certificates of appreciation.

The programme was coordinated by Dr. M. P Sharma and Dr. Payel Banerjee with the supervision of the Nodal Officer of EBSB Programme of GGV under the patronising shelter of Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor of Guru Ghasidas Vishwavidyalaya, Prof. Alok Kumar Chakrawal Ji.
