“Regional Tourism Knowledge Competition, 2022”

To commemorate the occasion of 75th year of Indian Independence, Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat team of Guru Ghasidas Vishwavidyalaya organized a “Regional Tourism Knowledge Competition” for students of universities from Chhattisgarh and Gujrat.

Students were asked to choose an unexplored tourist destination from their locality/ state and to prepare a 3 minute video with commentary. They were asked to include important features of the place i.e., location on map, way to reach the place, importance and uniqueness of the place (due to which it has tourism value), lodging/ boarding availability and charges in the video.

Total 5 entries were received (Three from GGV, one each from Saurashtra University and Shree Dhanvantary College of Pharmacy). These entries were judged by Dr. Naveen K. Vishvakarma, Department of Biotechnology, GGV and Dr. Deepanker Yadav, Department of Botany, GGV. They evaluated the submitted entries on different judging criteria (content, location and importance of place, video quality and commentary and overall impact) and gave their verdict. Mr. Vivek Kumar Rathore from GGV, Mr. Nilesh Sharma from SDPC, and Mr. Alok Singh Thakur from GGV secured first, second and third positions, respectively.

Competition was successfully organized by Dr. Ashwini K. Dixit and Dr. Vibhay Nath Tripathi, under the patronship and blessings of Honorable Vice-Chancellor, Guru Ghasidas Vishwavidyalaya, Prof. Alok Kumar Chakrawal Ji.
