

EBSB week concludes at SMVDU

Shri Mata Vaishno Devi University and Indira Gandhi National Centre for the Arts IGNCA organized a webinar on “The Temple arts and architecture of J&K and TN” under the flagship of Azadi Ka Amrut Mahotsav program On Tuesday 15 Mar 2022 as the concluding event of the EBSB program series dubbed as Ek Bharat Shrestha Bharat week.

Shri Sumanta Sarathi Sharma, Head School of Philosophy & Culture, SMVDU welcomed all guests and participants. The program began with an illuminating presentation by Dr. N. Kala Baskar (Former Director, In-Charge) Centre for Cyber Forensics and Information Security University of Madras. She spoke on the Grandeur of Kailasanatha temple of Kanchipuram. In the second presentation, Ar. Aditya Kumar Singh (Head, School of Architecture and Landscape Design), SMVD University Katra addressed the audience on Cultural Continuity through Indian Traditional Hindu Temples. It was well appreciated by students and alumni present. The final speech was delivered by Dr. Virendra Bangroo (Director, Regional Centre) Indira Gandhi National Centre for the Arts New Delhi, who gave a walkthrough on the Temple Architecture of Jammu & Kashmir. It was truly magnificent and enlightening.

The event was moderated by Shri Sumanta Sarathi Sharma, Faculty Coordinator, EBSB, SMVD University who also presented the vote of thanks to the speaker, participants, and guests. He also thanked the various stakeholders for the successful conduction of the three weeks long EBSB events series that was conducted under the flagship of Azadi ka Amrut Mahotsav.