

Event Report: Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat Sports Triumph Challenge – Tug of War and Pithu

Date: 29/08/24

Venue: Front Lawn

Organized by: Ek Bharat Shrestha Bharat Committee

Hosted by: Harsh Bidaria

On the celebration of National Sports Day and under the aegis of the Ek Bharat Shrestha Bharat initiative, a spirited sports event was organized featuring traditional Indian games, Pithu and Tug of War. The event aimed to rekindle childhood memories and foster unity among the students of Jaipuria Institute of Management.

Participants' Contributions:

Participants from various teams showcased their enthusiasm and sportsmanship, with a total of 30 teams competing. Each team had 5 members, leading to a total of 150 participants. It was required to include at least 2 female members, ensuring diversity and inclusiveness. The games were competitive and thrilling, with teams putting forth their best efforts in every round.

Competition Results:

After a series of exciting matches, Sec-C emerged as the winning team, with Devansh Mathur as the team captain. The competition was fierce, but Sec-C's teamwork and strategy secured their victory. There was no runner-up as the event had only one winning team.

Conclusion:

The event not only provided an opportunity to engage in physical activities but also revived the rich cultural essence of traditional Indian sports. The EBSB Sports Day was a successful event, achieving its goal of promoting cultural unity and fostering a sense of camaraderie among students.

The organizing committee extends its gratitude to Chirag Sharma (President) and Harsh Gupta (Vice President) for their invaluable support, which was instrumental in the success of the event. In conclusion, the EBSB Sports Day left a lasting impression on all participants and attendees, reaffirming the spirit of 'Ek Bharat Shrestha Bharat.'
