Report

Name of Activity	Republic Day Celebrations
Date	25-01-2024
Venue	Auditorium, Block B
Organized by	EBSB Club & Cultural Club MIMT
Beneficiaries	MBA Students
Activity In-charge	Dr. Jaspreet Kaur & Dr. Aanchal Tyagi, Faculty, MIMT
Objectives	The primary objective of the Republic Day was to instill a sense of patriotism, unity, and pride among students, faculty, and staff members. It aimed to commemorate the adoption of the Indian Constitution and honor the principles of justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity enshrined in it. Additionally, the celebration sought to promote cultural diversity, inclusivity, and national integration among the campus community.
Content	The Republic Day celebration at Mangalmay Group of Institutions, Greater Noida commenced with full enthusiasm in the presence of Chairman Shri Atul Mangal, & Vice-Chairman Shri Aayush Mangal. The ceremony featured various cultural performances, including patriotic songs, dance performances, and skits, showcasing the rich heritage and diversity of India. Students from different states and cultural backgrounds actively participated, reflecting the unity in diversity ethos of the nation. The highlight of the event was the address by the Dr. Geeti Sharma, Director MIMT, who spoke eloquently about the significance of Republic Day and the responsibilities of citizens in upholding democratic values and constitutional rights. His insightful speech inspired the audience to uphold the principles of justice, equality, and secularism in their lives and contribute positively to the nation-building process. In addition to cultural performances and speeches, the celebration also included a tableau depicting the cultural heritage of various states of India, an exhibition showcasing the achievements and contributions of Indian freedom fighters and national leaders, and a pledge-taking ceremony reaffirming commitment to the ideals of the Indian Constitution. The program ended with National Anthem.
Outcome of Activity	The Republic Day celebration at Mangalmay Institute of Management and Technology was a resounding success, sparking awareness and appreciation for India's diverse cultural heritage among students, faculty, and staff. It fostered a strong sense of national identity, uniting the campus community in a shared commitment to the nation's welfare. Promoting values of tolerance, inclusivity, and respect for diversity, the event inspired active citizenship and encouraged contributions to social, economic, and political development. Through cultural exchanges and interactions, bonds of camaraderie were strengthened, creating a sense of belonging and community spirit. Overall, the celebration reaffirmed democratic ideals and Mangalmay Institute's dedication to nurturing responsible citizens for India's progress.
